Topics Map > Service Catalog > Communications and collaboration services > Email When Office 365 accounts are first set up, users are prompted to select a time zone, usually Reykjavik/Monrovia (the default). This is easily fixed. Change the time zone to the correct setting in Outlook Web App, click Settings (), and then click View all Outlook settings at the bottom of the settings panel. (If you are using an older version, click on Mail under App Settings)In the Settings window, click General, and then click Language and Time. (Region and time zone in older version.) In the Current time zone setting. Click Save. As remote work becomes widely adopted in workplaces worldwide, the need to access your work email from home to check work email from home. This article focuses solely on Outlook work emails, which many organizations use because of its features, cost, and security. However, Outlook is just one of the many tools and software solutions that remote teams rely on. Log in here to access your school's intranet.
